

Carolyn Burkle Scholarship Award Indiana Farm Bureau Inc. District III

The Carolyn Burkle Scholarship is given in memory of Carolyn and honors her many years of service in working with various community organizations throughout her life.

Indiana Farm Bureau Inc. District III is sponsoring a $1,000 scholarship to a Farm Bureau family member. To be eligible you must be accepted in a higher education institution, and you need to reside in one of the following eight counties: Benton, Carroll, Cass, Clinton, Jasper, Newton, Tippecanoe or White Counties. Each winner can be awarded this scholarship only once.

The completed application must be returned to Janet Kemper, District III Woman Leader, by March 1 for evaluation. Address: 5710 East 700 South, Lafayette, IN 47909 or fax to 765-523-2432.

The selected winner will be recognized at our Farm Bureau District III Spring Meeting. Payment will be made directly to the educational institution.

Criteria for selection:

1. Provide resume demonstrating leadership qualities and participation in school, church, and community activities.
2. Type a 1- page double spaced personal essay on "Why I Am Pursuing This Higher Educational Opportunity."
